How to get there

If you arrive in Pisa by Train:

Web Page of Italian National Rail:

http://www.ferroviedellostato.it/homepage_en.html

There are two train stations in Pisa. The closest to the University is Pisa S.Rossore Station. the other is Pisa Centrale. The main train station is Pisa Centrale.

Arriving to Pisa Centrale, you can get to the School of Engineering:

- By taxi to Via Diotalvi (about 10 min)
- By bus (take LAM ROSSA in front of the rail station and stop at VIA BONANNO PISANO/OSPEDALE S.CHIARA. You can find the timetable here: <http://www.pisa.cttnord.it/GoogleTransit>. the website is only in Italian.

Insert "Via Diotisalvi" in the section "Arrivo", and choose the time of departure)

- On foot: a nice walk through downtown and Piazza dei Miracoli (about 40 min). See the map at the link:
