There are two train stations in Pisa. The closest one to the University is Pisa S.Rossore Railway Station. The main railway station is Pisa Centrale.

Arriving to Pisa Centrale, you can get to the School of Engineering:

- By taxi: to Via Diotalvi (about 10 min)
- By bus: LAM ROSSA direction Park Pietrasantina in front of the Train Station and stop at the bus stop "BONANNO 1"
  - You can find the timetable at the link <http://www.pisa.cttnord.it/GoogleTransit> (the website is only in Italian).
  - Insert "Largo Lucio Lazzarino 1" in the section "Arrivo", and choose the time of departure
- By train: Frequent regional trains depart from Pisa Centrale to Pisa S.Rossore.
  - Check the timetable on the Web Page of the Italian National Rail (<http://www.trenitalia.com/tcom-en>)
- On foot: a nice walk through downtown and Piazza dei Miracoli (about 40 min). See the map at the link <https://goo.gl/maps/31zf2GCTsiD2> (map in Figure 2)
